1. EDITORIAL MISSION & VISION

Resurrecting overlooked masterpieces of world cinema

Lost Frames is a high-production-value audio narrative and digital publication dedicated to deep structural analysis of films that have slipped through the cracks of mainstream cultural memory.

Each episode combines academic formalist critique with contextual historical narrative, breaking down complex visual languages into elegant, compelling stories for cinephiles and cultural consumers alike.

Why Partner With Us?

Our audience doesn't just pass through; they study, collect, and support independent art. We intentionally pair premium, articulate host delivery with meticulously edited sound design to ensure your placement feels natively embedded into an artisanal experience.

2. SEASON 1 PIPELINE & EDITORIAL CALENDAR

Curated narrative arcs for the inaugural six episodes

EP 1 Architectural Melancholy: The Framing of Desire

A deep dive into Wong Kar-wai's masterwork In the Mood for Love in contrast with the framing geometry of Hong Sang-soo.

Primary Sponsor Candidate: LegacyLens Cameras (Targeted mid-roll integration).

EP 2 The Geometry of Isolation

An analytical framework pairing Chantal Akerman's visual structuralism with the spatial loneliness of Edward Hopper's paintings.

EP 3 Deconstructed Memories

Tracing the visual echoes and fragmented temporal editing styles of Alain Resnais across modern independent European cinema.

3. AUDIENCE PROFILES & DISTRIBUTION NETWORK

Engaging high-intent cultural selectors across key segments

Our audience acquisition strategy focuses on high-affinity sub-segments of the independent arts market, delivering targeted traction right from the pre-launch phase:

- The Film-Festival Circuit: Active regional screening attendees, curation professionals, and international cinema subscribers.
- The Indie-Podcast Crowd: Listeners deeply invested in high-production serial narratives, high-fidelity sound, and analytical commentary.
- Newark Hometown Segment: Dedicated localized community tracking our physical activations and localized live screenings.

Pre-Launch Growth Architecture

By integrating our private digital subscriber waiting list, Eventbrite screening registers (including live screening structures at Cobblestone), and technical direct-out pipelines via `lostframes.show`, we provide sponsors direct exposure to a verified high-spend artistic community.

5. PARTNERSHIP AGREEMENTS & EXECUTION TERMS

Securing structural alignment for the Season 1 rollout

Booking Framework: All placements are locked in flat 6-episode blocks to maintain narrative pacing and preserve category exclusivity boundaries across the complete seasonal catalog run.

Copy Delivery: Strategic brief parameters, product reference materials, and custom landing destination tracking links must be supplied 14 business days prior to the calendar publication window.

Secure Your Position

Placements are tightly restricted to preserve technical audio clarity and listener goodwill. No more than two brand sponsors are integrated into a single release stream.
